The Canstatter Volkafest Furnishes Erjoyment for Old and Young

The sports of the Canstatter Volksfest were continued yesterday at Schuetzen Park. The programme will conclude this evening. The children participated in a moster dance in which, while bifoldfolded, they picked out the earthen pets which contained the fowls. For the chicken dance a pole seven feet high was placed in the ground with cross-trees on which were fastened cups par-tially fill with water. The contestants were ladles who were required to lift a gentleman high enough for his head to strike the cup and spill the water. The prizes were roosters. There was also a rabbit chase and bowling contests. The prizes in the latter were won by A. Ebert first, Willie Whitemeyer second. John Brown third, Joseph Runling fourth, Jeseph Kolb fifth, John Brown secured the prize for the most ten
